40th Anniversary Celebration:

Sunday, May 6, 2018 is a very important date here at Calvary Baptist Church. We will be celebrating Pastor Mike & Jeanie's 40th year of ministry here. There will be an adult and teen brunch reception in their honor during the Sunday School hour in the gym. Pastor Mike and Jeanie will then be honored during the morning service along with a special guest speaker preaching. Please come and help us celebrate!

New Music Director:

Ben and Brendee Dawley have accepted the Music Director Position at Calvary Baptist Church and School. They will be finishing up their current ministries during this school year at First Baptist Church and School of Lake Orion, Michigan. They will move to Midland this summer. Ben has a B.A. of Music in Church Music and a M.A. in Orchestral Instrument Performance, Euphonium from Bob Jones University. He has 12 years of experience leading church and school music ministries in three different Baptist churches and schools. Praise God for this answer to prayer and provision from the Lord! Pray for the Dawleys and their four young children as they make this move. They are excited to join the Calvary family and we are excited to have them serve with us to God's glory! God answers prayer!
