Thank You:

Words can't adequately express how grateful I am to be part of such a loving and caring family as here at Calvary. Your heartfelt words of encouragement, cards and most of all prayers helped carry us through this most difficult time. I keep thinking of Proverbs 3:5-6 and struggling with making sense of my son's untimely diagnosis and passing within six short weeks. I can't lean on my own understanding, I need to trust in the Lord that He works all things out for our good and His glory. Your prayers and support have helped and will continue to help my family as we grieve this terrible loss to our family. Thank you so much for your love.
